We are a kitchen and bath design firm working with high end clients. We have worked with Harry Day of Day's Construction, LLC. for over 20 years. They provide us with the necessary removal and room prep for our custom kitchens and baths.

We find that Harry is a respected and highly trusted builder and remodeler. He has a good sense of design and a well trained eye for details.

Day's Construction, LLC has a good team of highly skilled craftsmen that are dependable and will get the job done in a timely manner.

I would highly recommend Day's Construction, LLC for your new home or renovation project.
